

Create a Calculator

Requirements.

1. The calculator should give possibilities to type inside of the input.
2. The calculator should give possibilities to change input values via clicking the calculator buttons.
3. Only after clicking the equal button the calculator should calculate the value of the input.
4. The calculator should keep all mathematical rules.
5. The calculator should have + - * / operations. And the 'AC' button for removing value.
6. Do not use the 'eval' function.